1st day :: Arrival to Makarska ::

If You are coming by airplane we will organize the transfer from the airport Split for You. If You are arriving on Your own we will meet in our hotel. You will be introduced to Your guide and the whole group there before dinner and as well as get the opportunity to get know each other better, be informed about the programme and make arrangements for the following day.

2nd day :: Story of Brela's field labourers ::

Our minibus will take us to the village Gornja Brela (20 min), from where we will hike across terraces of mostly abandoned vineyards, where one can almost feel the hardness of long toilsome days of field labourers whose hoes cultivated these fields. We will rest farther away, next to the church of St. Nikolaus, and then continue over the pass Nevistina Stina, which offers an exceptional view of the coastline villages and surrounding islands, and then descent into the village Topići, which preserved its historical appearance until today.

5th day :: Drama of Imotski Lakes ::

On this day we will be in the region, where Zabiokovo basin "breaks" and creates a number of deep lakes with steep banks by these dramatic movements, which around Imotsko polje make a string of 9 crystal-clear, deep lakes. Their colour reflects the colour of surrounding cliffs, so some of them were named after this phenomenon. Local people are witnessing ground sinking and creation of new lakes.

Climb: 240 m

Coming down: 110 m

Hiking: 4 h - medium difficult

6th day :: Pearls of Brač Island ::

Ferry, bus and our feet will carry us to the centre of Brač, known as a "marble" island, from whose rocks many well-known residences in Europe and in America were built of. We will enjoy in beautiful views of the famous beach Zlatni rât (Golden Cape), surrounding islands as well as of surrounding onshore mountains Biokovo, Mosor and Kozjak from its highest peak Vidova Gora (778 m). We will come down to the beach and if there is enough time, have a swim on the „most beautiful beach in the Adriatic“.
